SWOC analysis of the department and future plans.

Strengths

- Highly qualified and experienced faculty and there is no faculty crunch at UG level.
- Student centric and interactive teaching learning process.
- Catering the needs of Higher Education from UG to PG.
- This subject plays an important role for increasing the awareness of our great Indian culture in the society at large.
- Favorable student-teacher ratio.

Weakness

- Declining student strength.
- No Government provisions of permanent teacher for PG therefore more dependency on visiting faculty at teaching of PG.
- The medium of Instruction is Gujarati throughout the programme therefore students face much difficulty in communication in English language which is expected in this changing scenario.

Opportunities:

- It provides ample opportunities to understand Indian epics and traditions.
- Having job opportunity in teaching field range from primary school to post graduation.

Challenges:

- Increasing trend towards Science and Professional courses.
- It has less market absorption.
- Depleting strength of the students in the Humanities and Languages.

Future Plans

- To start certificate course in Functional and Communicative Sanskrit under auspices of UGC Career Orientation scheme.
- To organize seminar and workshops with financial assistance from UGC and Sanskrit Sahitya Academy of the State.
- To start coaching for NET/SLET in the subject of Sanskrit.
- To arrange more lectures of renowned literary person of Sanskrit literature.
- To arrange more field trips to visit the Indology and research centers of Sanskrit in the State.
- To arrange seminar and workshop for National Education Policy (NEP-2020).
- To arrange counselling program for students.
