*Collaboration with: * 9 Guj Bn Ahmedabad

Total cadets: 15

On the 27th of November 2022, the NCC department of Maniben M.P. Shah Mahila Arts College, Kadi, in collaboration with C.N. Arts and B.D. Commerce College, successfully organized a blood donation camp. The event was held in partnership with 9 Guj Bn Ahmedabad, aiming to promote awareness of the importance of blood donation and to contribute to the local community's healthcare efforts.

Participation and Involvement:

A total of 15 cadets from the National Cadet Corps (NCC) actively participated in the event. These cadets worked tirelessly to ensure the smooth operation of the camp, assisting the medical teams, managing the crowd, and spreading awareness about the benefits of blood donation.

Event Highlights:

- The camp was set up in a well-organized manner, ensuring hygiene and safety protocols.
- Donors from the colleges and surrounding areas volunteered to donate blood, demonstrating community spirit and a willingness to help others.
- Medical professionals guided and monitored the donation process to ensure the well-being of the donors.
- Cadets educated participants on the significance of regular blood donations and their role in saving lives.

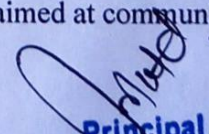

Impact and Outcome:

The event was a great success, with many units of blood collected, which will be used to aid those in need. The cadets displayed exemplary discipline, teamwork, and leadership throughout the event. The initiative fostered a sense of social responsibility among the students and contributed to a broader understanding of community service.

This collaborative effort between the colleges and the NCC reflects the shared commitment to public welfare, and the event was appreciated by all participants.

Conclusion

The blood donation camp, conducted under the supervision of the NCC and in collaboration with local institutions, proved to be a fruitful and impactful initiative. The positive response from both donors and cadets has set a precedent for future events aimed at community service.

Report on Cleanliness Campaign

Event Date: 29th December 2022

Venue: *Maniben M.P. Shah Mahila Arts College Campus, Kadi

Organized by: NCC Department, Maniben M.P. Shah Mahila Arts College

Total Cadets Participated: 40

On the 29th of December 2022, the National Cadet Corps (NCC) department of Maniben M.P. Shah Mahila Arts College, Kadi, organized a cleanliness campaign within the college campus. This event was part of the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan, a national initiative aimed at promoting cleanliness and hygiene.

Objective of the Campaign:

The primary objective of the cleanliness campaign was to raise awareness among students about the importance of a clean environment and to encourage active participation in maintaining cleanliness in public spaces.

Participation and Activities:

A total of 40 NCC cadets enthusiastically participated in the cleanliness drive. The campaign was organized in various sections of the campus, including:

- Classrooms
- Playgrounds
- Corridors and common areas
- Gardens and surrounding campus spaces

The cadets were divided into teams, each responsible for a specific area of the campus. They worked diligently to clean the designated areas, picking up litter, sweeping pathways, and ensuring that the environment was free from waste.

Event Highlights:

- The cadets, equipped with cleaning tools such as brooms, gloves, and garbage bags, set a positive example for the rest of the students and staff by taking the lead in cleaning efforts.
- The campaign emphasized the need for sustainable waste disposal practices, promoting segregation of waste into biodegradable and non-biodegradable categories.
- Posters and banners highlighting the importance of cleanliness were placed around the campus, encouraging others to join the movement and adopt cleanliness as a daily practice.

Principal
Maniben M.P. Shah Mahila Arts College
Kadi - (N.G.)-384440

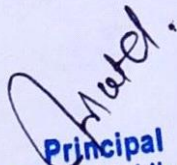

Impact and Outcome:

The cleanliness drive was a success, transforming the college campus into a cleaner and more welcoming environment. The campaign instilled a sense of responsibility among the cadets and the student body regarding the importance of cleanliness, both on the campus and in their personal lives.

Conclusion:

The cleanliness campaign conducted by the NCC department of Maniben M.P. Shah Mahila Arts College was an effective initiative in promoting hygiene and environmental consciousness. The participation of the cadets and their dedication to the cause was commendable. The event left a lasting impact, and similar initiatives are planned for the future to further support the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan.

Report on Traffic Awareness Campaign

Event Date: 31st December 2022

Venue: N.C. Desai Petrol Pump, Kadi

Organized by: NCC Department, Maniben M.P. Shah Mahila Arts College, Kadi

Total Cadets Participated: 40

On the 31st of December 2022, the NCC department of Maniben M.P. Shah Mahila Arts College, Kadi, organized a Traffic Awareness Campaign at N.C. Desai Petrol Pump, Kadi. This initiative aimed to raise public awareness about road safety, traffic rules, and responsible driving, especially in high-traffic areas like petrol pumps.

Objective of the Campaign:

The primary objective of the campaign was to educate the public on the importance of following traffic rules, wearing helmets and seatbelts, avoiding mobile phone use while driving, and ensuring pedestrian safety.

Participation and Activities:

A total of 40 NCC cadets participated in the event, actively engaging with commuters and the general public. The cadets were stationed at the N.C. Desai Petrol Pump, a busy location, where they interacted with vehicle owners, drivers, and pedestrians, offering important road safety tips and distributing educational pamphlets.

Event Highlights

- The cadets emphasized the significance of wearing helmets and seatbelts as basic safety measures.
- They discussed the dangers of distracted driving, particularly the use of mobile phones while driving or crossing roads.
- Posters and banners were displayed to reinforce key messages related to road safety.
- Cadets assisted in managing traffic flow near the petrol pump, helping to reduce congestion and guiding pedestrians to safe crossing points.

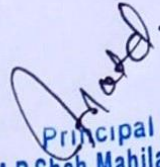

Impact

The campaign received a positive response from the public. Many drivers and pedestrians appreciated the efforts of the NCC cadets and acknowledged the importance of adhering to traffic rules. The event helped spread awareness and reminded people of their responsibility to ensure their own safety and the safety of others on the road.

Conclusion:

The Traffic Awareness Campaign organized by the NCC department of Maniben M.P. Shah Mahila Arts College successfully raised awareness about road safety and the importance of following traffic regulations. The active participation of 40 cadets and their dedication to public service made the campaign impactful. It is hoped that such initiatives will contribute to reducing road accidents and improving overall traffic discipline in the community.

Report on Nukkad Natak for "Beti Bachao, Beti Padhao"

Event Date: 23rd May 2023

Venue: 9 Gujarat Battalion (BN), Ahmedabad

Organized by: NCC Department, Maniben M.P. Shah Mahila Arts College, Kadi

Total Cadets Participated: 7

On the 23rd of May 2023, the National Cadet Corps (NCC) department of Maniben M.P. Shah Mahila Arts College, Kadi, participated in a Nukkad Natak (street play) focused on the theme "Beti Bachao, Beti Padhao" at the 9 Gujarat Battalion (BN) headquarters in Ahmedabad. The event aimed to spread awareness about the importance of saving and educating the girl child, in line with the national campaign "Beti Bachao, Beti Padhao."

Objective of the Event:

The primary objective of the Nukkad Natak was to highlight gender equality, promote the empowerment of girls through education, and raise awareness about the need to protect and nurture girl children. The message conveyed through the play emphasized the crucial role of girls in society and the importance of eliminating gender discrimination.

Participation and Performance:

A total of 7 NCC cadets from Maniben M.P. Shah Mahila Arts College actively participated in the Nukkad Natak. The cadets performed with great enthusiasm and effectively conveyed the message of the campaign to the audience.

Event Highlights:

- The Nukkad Natak was performed in an open space at the 9 Gujarat BN, attracting a large audience, including fellow cadets, officers, and members of the public.
- The cadets creatively used dialogue, songs, and skits to emphasize the importance of educating girls and protecting their rights.
- The performance was interactive, engaging the audience and encouraging them to reflect on their role in promoting gender equality.
- Placards and slogans were used to strengthen the message of the campaign, making it visually impactful.

Impact and Outcome:

The Nukkad Natak received an overwhelmingly positive response from the audience. The cadets' performance was appreciated for its emotional depth and strong social message. The event successfully raised awareness about the challenges faced by girls in society and motivated the audience to support the cause of educating and empowering girls.

Conclusion:

The Nukkad Natak performed by the NCC cadets of Maniben M.P. Shah Mahila Arts College was an impactful and successful event, spreading the message of "Beti Bachao, Beti Padhao" in an engaging manner. The dedication of the cadets in delivering a powerful performance was commendable, and the event contributed to raising awareness about the importance of gender equality and the empowerment of girls in the community.
