REPORT OF CELEBRATION RAMOTSAV

Date: 22nd January 2024

Venue: Maniben M.P. Shah Mahila Arts College, Kadi.

On 22nd January 2024, the IQAC and Cultural Committee of Maniben M.P. Shah Mahila Arts College celebrated *Ram Utsav, a festival dedicated to the worship of Lord Ram. The event aimed to promote cultural and spiritual values among students and staff. The day was filled with religious and cultural activities, including Rangoli making the lighting of lamps, symbolizing light over darkness and the victory of good over evil.

All college students and staff participated enthusiastically in the celebrations.

As part of the celebration, all students and staff took part in a Rangoli making activity. Vibrant and intricate Rangoli designs were created throughout the college campus, showcasing traditional art forms. Rangolis depicting symbols of Lord Ram and other religious motifs added to the festive atmosphere.

Following the Rangoli making, a grand lamp lighting ceremony was held where students and staff lit diyas (oil lamps) across the campus, symbolizing the triumph of light over darkness. The sight of hundreds of lamps lit simultaneously created a serene and spiritual environment.

To complement the religious significance of the day, students presented bhajans and devotional songs dedicated to Lord Ram. These performances added a spiritual ambience to the celebration, with participants and the audience alike enjoying the harmonious atmosphere.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks from the principal, who appreciated the collective efforts of students and staff in making the celebration successful. The principal also highlighted the importance of festivals like Ram Utsav in fostering unity and cultural pride.

The Ram Utsav Celebration was a spiritually enriching and culturally vibrant event. The participation of students and staff in activities like Rangoli making and lamp lighting fostered a sense of togetherness and devotion. The festival not only celebrated religious values but also reinforced cultural traditions.
