REPORT ON ZERO TOLERANCE POLICY AWARENESS PROGRAM

In a vibrant display of its dedication to fostering a respectful and inclusive academic community, Maniben M. P. Shah Mahila Arts College in Kadi organized a comprehensive Zero Tolerance Policy Awareness Program on "Breaking the Silence: Empowering Voices to End Sexual Harassment" on 26th June, 2023. The college classroom buzzed with the presence of over 92 participants, encompassing students, faculty members, and administrative staff, all united in their commitment to a safe campus environment. The session was expertly steered by Principal Dr. Hina M. Patel, whose leadership set a reassuring tone, complemented by the insights of District Collector Shri M. Nagrajan, Superintendent of Police/SSP of the District Dr. Parthrajsinh Gohil and Kadi Police Inspector N. R. Vaghela. Drawing from the college's 2023-24 Zero Tolerance Policy document, the program meticulously outlined unacceptable behaviours, painting vivid scenarios of harassment (such as sexual assault or threatening remarks), bullying (including physical threats or malicious gossip), discrimination (like racial slurs or gender-based exclusion), and micro-aggressions (such as racially insensitive remarks or overlooking religious holidays). Through captivating presentations rich with real-world examples, attendees were not only educated on the intricacies of reporting violations but also informed about the spectrum of disciplinary consequences, which could escalate from formal warnings to termination or rustication. The interactive format sparked thoughtful exchanges, empowering participants to voice concerns and seek clarity. Post-event feedback was overwhelmingly positive, with 90% of attendees expressing newfound confidence in recognizing and confronting inappropriate conduct. Inspired by the program's success, the college vowed to make such awareness initiatives an annual tradition, ensuring the principles of respect and inclusivity remain deeply embedded in its culture.
