

Maniben M. P. Shah Mahila Arts College, Kadi
Opp. N. C. Desai Petrol Pump, Highway Road,
Taluka: Kadi, District: Mehasna-382715

Activities of N.S.S.

Year: 2020-2021

Sr. No.	Name of the Activities	Date	Place	No. of Participants	Organizing Unit/ Dept.
1	Poster Making Competition on Corona Warriors	14-10-20	College Campus	28	online
2	Celebration of Indian Constitution Day	26-11-20	College Campus	40
3	Distribution of Woolen Shawl & Blankets in Slum Areas	4-1-2021 to 5-1-21	Kadi City	13	N.S.S.
5	Distribution of Kites, Thread and Chikki to Slum People	13-1-21	Slum Area, Kadi	25	N.S.S.
6	Celebration of National Voters Day	25-1-21	Kadi	50	Mamlatdar Office-Kadi
7	Essay Writing Competition on Freedom Hero	24-3-21		23	N.S.S.

Principal
Maniben M. P. Shah Mahila Arts College
Kadi - (N.G.) - 382 715

NSS Activities – 2020-21

NSS Activities – 2020-21

Distribution of Wollen Shawl & Blanket

Kites Distribution

NSS Activities – 2020-21

National Voters Day

Distribution of Wollen Shawl & Blanket

Maniben P. Shah
Principal

Maniben M. P. Shah Mahila Arts College
Kadi - (N.G.) - 382 715

Maniben M.P.Shah Mahila ArtsCollege, Kadi

Opp.N.C.Desai Petrol Pump, Highway Road,Taluka: Kadi, District: Mehasna-382715

Activities of N.S.S.

Year 2020-2021

Sr. No.	Name of the Activities	Date	Nomb.	Organizing Unit/ Dept.
1	Corona Warrior poster making	14-10-20	28	online
2	Indian Constitution Celebration Day	26-11-20	40
3	Distrubtion of Wollen Shawl & Blanket in Slam Areas	04/01/21	13	N.S.S.
4	Distrubtion of Wollen Shawl & Blanket in Slam Areas	05/01/21	15	N.S.S.
5	Celebration of the Kites Flying at Slam Areas	13/01/21	25	N.S.S.
6	Celebrate National Voters Day	25/01/21	50	Mamlatdar Office-Kadi
7	Freedom Hero Essay Writing	24/03/21	23	N.S.S.

Programme Officer, N. S. S.
Maniben M. P. Shah Mahila Arts College
KADI - (N.G.)

Number of extension and outreach programs conducted by the institution through NSS/NCC/Red cross/YRC etc., (including the programmes such as Swachchh Bharat, AIDS awareness, Gender issues etc. and/or those organised in collaboration with industry, community and NGOs) during the last five year- 2020-21

NO.	DOCUMENTS
1.	NSS ACTIVITIES
	-LIST OF ACTIVITIES WITH DATE
	-LIST OF PARTICIPANTS
	-PHOTOS
	- REPORTS OF ACTIVITIES
	-PRESSNOTES
	-ACHIEVEMENTS- CERTIFICATE
2.	NCC ACTIVITIES
	-LIST OF ACTIVITIES WITH DATE
	-LIST OF PARTICIPANTS
	-PHOTOS
	- REPORTS OF ACTIVITIES
	-PRESSNOTES
	-ACHIEVEMENTS-CERTIFICATE

- Events conducted for the benefit of their own students not to be included under outreach programs.
- Only extension activities for the benefit of community will be considered.
- Exclude National festivals, Days celebrations like Yoga day, Women's day etc.,

Reports ON

Corona Warrior Poster Making Online Competition

October 14, 2020

This event was part of the institution's continuous efforts to raise awareness about the critical role played by healthcare workers and frontline responders during the COVID-19 pandemic.

The competition aimed to inspire creativity while highlighting the tireless work of corona warriors who were at the forefront of combating the virus. The theme was carefully selected to honor these individuals and spread a message of hope, courage, and perseverance in the face of adversity. Participants were encouraged to express their gratitude and respect through artistic representations, showcasing the relentless battle fought by doctors, nurses, police officers, sanitation workers, and other essential service providers.

total of 42 students actively participated in this competition, which was conducted online due to the restrictions in place at the time. The event provided students with an opportunity to engage in a productive and meaningful activity while staying safe at home. Each student demonstrated a deep understanding of the challenges faced by the corona warriors and creatively captured these sentiments in their artwork.

The event was led by the N.S.S. Program Officer, Professor H.H. Parmar whose dedication to organizing such initiatives has always been commendable. Under his guidance, the competition not only allowed students to showcase their talents but also encouraged them to reflect on the significance of the selfless service provided by these frontline workers. The poster-making competition became a way for students to contribute to the larger narrative of societal gratitude during the pandemic, reinforcing the college's commitment to social responsibility and community awareness.

The success of the event exemplified the resilience of both students and staff in adapting to new ways of learning and engagement during challenging times.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Maniben', written over a circular stamp.

Principal
Maniben M. P. Shah Mahila Arts College
Kadi - (N.G.) - 382 715

Celebrated Indian Constitution Day

Date: 26-11-2020

On November 26, 2020, Maniben M.P. Shah Mahila Arts College, Kadi, celebrated Indian Constitution Day with an engaging online event, highlighting the significance of the Indian Constitution and its role in shaping the nation. This event, organized under the leadership of N.S.S. Program Officer Prof. H.H. Parmar, saw the active participation of 40 students, who gathered virtually to honor the Constitution and deepen their understanding of its principles.

The Constitution of India on November 26, 1949. The day is celebrated nationwide Indian Constitution Day, also known as Samvidhan Diwas, marks the adoption of the to promote awareness about the Constitution and its values, including justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity. Given the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic at the time, the college adapted to the situation by shifting the event online, ensuring that the significance of the day was not diminished by the circumstances.

The event commenced with an introductory session led by Prof. H.H. Parmar, who provided an overview of the historical context in which the Constitution was framed. He emphasized the importance of the Constitution as the supreme law of the land, safeguarding the rights and duties of every citizen. The students were encouraged to reflect on how the Constitution impacts their daily lives and the responsibilities they hold as citizens of India.

Following the introduction, a series of presentations were delivered by the students, each focusing on different aspects of the Constitution. Topics included the Preamble, Fundamental Rights, Directive Principles of State Policy, and the roles of various branches of government. These presentations were not only informative but also interactive, as students engaged in discussions, asking questions, and sharing their interpretations of the constitutional provisions.

The event also featured a quiz competition, where students tested their knowledge of the Indian Constitution. The quiz was a lively affair, with participants eagerly answering questions about the Constitution's articles, amendments, and key historical moments. This activity served to reinforce the students' understanding of the Constitution in a fun and engaging manner.

the event drew to a close, Prof. Parmar led the students in taking a pledge to uphold the values enshrined in the Constitution and to contribute positively to the nation's democratic framework. The online platform allowed students to come together, even from a distance, to celebrate the Constitution and reaffirm their commitment to the principles it embodies.

The success of the Online Indian Constitution Celebration Day at Maniben M.P. Shah Mahila Arts College, Kadi, demonstrated the adaptability and resilience of the college community in the face of challenges. The event not only honored the legacy of the Constitution but also instilled a sense of pride and responsibility among the students, who left the virtual gathering with a deeper appreciation for the guiding document of the nation.

[Signature]
Principal

Maniben M. P. Shah Mahila Arts College
Kadi - (N.G.) - 382 715.

REPORTS ON

Distribution of Woolen Shawls and Blankets in the Slum Areas of Kadi.

JANUARY 4th and 5th - 2021

On January 4th and 5th, 2021, Maniben M.P. Shah Mahila Arts College, Kadi, organized a humanitarian event focused on the Distribution of Woolen Shawls and Blankets in the Slum Areas of Kadi. This initiative was driven by the desire to provide warmth and comfort to the underprivileged sections of society during the harsh winter months. The event was a testament to the college's commitment to social responsibility and community service.

The distribution effort was led by the dedicated N.S.S. Program Officer, Prof. H.H. Parmar, who has been instrumental in organizing various community service activities at the college. Under his guidance, 15 students volunteered to participate in this noble cause, showcasing their compassion and willingness to contribute to the welfare of the less fortunate.

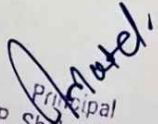

The planning for the distribution event began well in advance, with the college identifying the most vulnerable slum areas in Kadi where the residents were in dire need of warm clothing. The students, guided by Prof. Parmar, worked tirelessly to collect the woolen shawls and blankets that would be distributed. The college community, including faculty, staff, and students, came together to donate these items, demonstrating a collective spirit of giving and solidarity.

On the morning of January 4th, the students and Prof. Parmar set out to the identified slum areas. The experience was both eye-opening and heartwarming for the students, many of whom were participating in such an outreach activity for the first time. As they handed out the shawls and blankets, they were met with gratitude and smiles from the residents. The warmth of the woolen items was matched by the warmth of the interactions between the students and the community members.

The distribution continued into the next day, January 5th, ensuring that all the targeted areas were covered. The students made sure to engage with the residents, listening to their stories and understanding their challenges. This interaction helped the students gain a deeper appreciation of the hardships faced by those living in slum conditions, and it strengthened their resolve to continue participating in such initiatives in the future.

The event was more than just a distribution of material goods; it was an exercise in empathy and social responsibility. The students learned valuable lessons about the importance of community service and the impact that even small acts of kindness can have on the lives of others. The college, through this initiative, reinforced its role as not just an educational institution, but also as a beacon of social change in the community.

The success of this event was widely recognized, and it served as an inspiration for future activities. Prof. H.H. Parmar, along with the participating students, expressed their satisfaction with the outcomes and their commitment to organizing similar events in the future. The distribution of woolen shawls and blankets in the slum areas of Kadi on January 4-5, 2021, stands as a shining example of the values of compassion, service, and community engagement that are deeply ingrained in the ethos of Maniben M.P. Shah Mahila Arts College, Kadi.

Principal
Maniben M. P. Shah Mahila Arts College
Kadi - (N.G.) - 382 715

Reports ON

CELEBRATION THE KITES FLTING AT SLUM AREAS

DATE; 13-1-2021

On January 13, 2021, Maniben M.P. Shah Mahila Arts College, Kadi, organized a vibrant and heartwarming event centered around the distribution of kites and a kite-flying activity in the slum areas of Kadi. The event was designed to bring joy and a sense of celebration to underprivileged children and families, coinciding with the festive spirit of Uttarayan, a popular kite-flying festival in Gujarat. This initiative was led by the dedicated N.S.S. Program Officer, Prof. H.H. Parmar, and saw the enthusiastic participation of 25 students from the college.

The event was rooted in the belief that festivals and celebrations should be inclusive, reaching every corner of society, including those who may not have the means to fully participate. The idea of distributing kites was born out of a desire to spread happiness and bring a festive atmosphere to the slum areas, where children often do not have the opportunity to enjoy such celebrations due to financial constraints.

Preparation for the event began with the students and faculty pooling resources to collect kites of various colors, shapes, and sizes. The college community, known for its active participation in social causes, came together once again to support this initiative. The students were excited about the opportunity to interact with the children in the slum areas and to share in the joy of kite flying, a beloved tradition in Gujarat.

On the day of the event, the group of students, led by Prof. H.H. Parmar, arrived in the slum areas carrying bundles of kites. The sight of the colorful kites brought immediate smiles to the faces of the children. The students distributed the kites to the eager children, who could hardly contain their excitement. For many of these children, this was their first time receiving a kite of their own, making the moment even more special.

After the distribution, the students spent time teaching the children how to fly the kites, guiding them on the techniques and tricks to keep the kites soaring high in the sky. The air was filled with laughter and cheers as the kites took flight, painting the sky with a rainbow of colors. The event quickly became a community celebration, with parents and other residents of the slum areas joining in the fun, watching the kites dance against the blue sky.

The students also took the opportunity to interact with the families, learning more about their lives and the challenges they face. These interactions were valuable, providing the students with a deeper understanding of the importance of community service and the impact of small acts of kindness.

As the event drew to a close, the students and Prof. Parmar reflected on the success of the day. The joy they had brought to the children and the sense of community that had been fostered through the simple act of kite flying was a rewarding experience for all involved. The event not only brightened the day for the children in the slum areas but also reinforced the college's commitment to inclusivity and social responsibility.

The kite-flying event on January 13, 2021, organized by Maniben M.P. Shah Mahila Arts College, Kadi, stands as a beautiful example of how cultural traditions can be used to bridge social gaps and bring joy to all members of the community. The event was a reminder that festivals are not just about celebration but also about sharing happiness and creating a sense of belonging for everyone, regardless of their circumstances.

Maniben
Principal

Maniben M. P. Shah Mahila Arts College
Kadi - (N.G.) - 382 715.

REPORTS ON

National Celebrated Voters Day

January 25, 2021,

On January 25, 2021, Maniben M.P. Shah Mahila Arts College, Kadi, celebrated National Voters Day with great enthusiasm and active participation from both students and staff. The event aimed to raise awareness about the importance of voting and the democratic process, emphasizing the crucial role of every citizen in shaping the future of the country.

A total of 50 students from the college participated in this event, showing their commitment to the democratic process and their responsibilities as future voters. The event was further supported by the staff members of the college, who played a significant role in organizing and coordinating the activities of the day.

The celebration was not just limited to the college premises but also had the backing of the Mamlatdar Office, Kadi. This collaboration highlighted the significance of government institutions and educational bodies working together to promote voter awareness. The involvement of the Mamlatdar Office added an official touch to the event, ensuring that the message of the importance of voting reached a wider audience.

The day was filled with various activities aimed at educating the participants about the electoral process. These activities included informative sessions on voter registration, the importance of voting in a democracy, and the rights and responsibilities of voters. The students also engaged in discussions and debates, sharing their views on how voting can bring about positive changes in society. The event concluded with a pledge by all the participants to uphold the values of democracy and to encourage others to participate in the voting process. The collective effort of the students, staff, and the Mamlatdar Office made the celebration of National Voters Day at Maniben M.P. Shah Mahila Arts College, Kadi, a memorable and impactful event. It served as a reminder of the power of the vote and the responsibility of each individual in ensuring a thriving democracy.

Maniben
Principal

Maniben M. P. Shah Mahila Arts College
Kadi - (N.G.) - 382 715.

REPORTS ON

Hero Freedom Essay Writing

24-3-2021

On March 24, 2021, Maniben M.P. Shah Mahila Arts College, Kadi, organized a Freedom Hero Essay Writing competition, an event designed to commemorate the sacrifices and contributions of India's freedom fighters. Led by N.S.S. Program Officer Prof. H.H. Parmar, the competition attracted 23 enthusiastic students who participated in this reflective exercise to honor the heroes who played pivotal roles in India's struggle for independence.

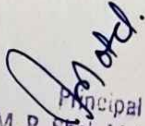

The objective of the essay writing competition was not only to enhance the students' writing skills but also to deepen their understanding and appreciation of the freedom movement and the individuals who shaped India's destiny. The theme of "Freedom Heroes" was chosen to encourage students to explore the lives, ideologies, and contributions of the various figures who fought for India's independence, from well-known leaders like Mahatma Gandhi and Subhas Chandra Bose to lesser-known yet equally important heroes.

The event was structured to provide students with the opportunity to research and write about a freedom hero of their choice. Each participant was given ample time to delve into the history of their chosen figure, allowing them to gather information, analyze the impact of the hero's actions, and express their thoughts in a coherent and meaningful essay. This process not only helped students improve their research and writing skills but also instilled in them a sense of pride and responsibility towards preserving the legacy of these great individuals.

On the day of the competition, the essays were submitted and later reviewed by a panel of faculty members, who evaluated them based on content, originality, and clarity of expression. The students' essays showcased a wide range of freedom fighters, highlighting the diversity of the independence movement and the different approaches taken by these heroes to achieve a common goal.

In addition to recognizing the top essays, the event also included a discussion session where students shared insights from their research. This interactive component allowed participants to learn about different freedom heroes and their contributions, broadening their understanding of India's rich history of struggle and resistance.

The Freedom Hero Essay Writing competition was a meaningful event that provided students with a platform to express their thoughts on a crucial aspect of India's heritage. By reflecting on the lives of freedom fighters, the students were able to connect with the values of courage, determination, and selflessness that these heroes embodied. The event, led by Prof. H.H. Parmar, successfully fulfilled its objective of fostering a deeper connection between the students and the legacy of India's freedom movement.

Principal
Maniben M. P. Shah Mahila Arts College
Kadi - (N.G.) - 382 715.